

Jisr Unveils Its Innovative Digital Service at Qatar Summit 2025

Doha, Qatar – February 2025 – In a move that reinforces its leadership in HR solutions, Jisr HR, the leading HR technology provider in Saudi Arabia, has announced its innovative digital services during its participation in Qatar Summit 2025—a premier event bringing together top business leaders and experts in digital transformation and human capital management. As part of regional growth strategy, Jisr is expanding its presence across the GCC, bringing its cutting-edge HR solutions to businesses throughout the region

A Game-Changing Digital Solution

Jisr's services introduces an approach to HR automation, enabling organizations to efficiently manage their workforce through an integrated platform powered by AI and advanced analytics. From recruitment and performance management to career development, this solution streamlines HR processes and provides deeper insights for smarter decision-making.

Why Jisr?

With the growing challenges of the modern workforce and evolving business needs, Jisr services is designed to be more flexible, faster to implement, and easier to integrate with existing systems. It is the ultimate solution for businesses looking to enhance efficiency, improve employee experiences, and drive digital transformation in their HR operations.

The promising opportunities at Qatar Summit 2025

jisr has chosen Qatar Summit 2025 as the perfect platform to introduce these innovative services, given the event's status as a key gathering for thought leaders in HR and technology.

Join Us at E311

We invite all professionals and businesses seeking to transform their HR operations to visit us at Booth E311 and discover how Jisr's latest digital solutions can empower their workforce.

For more information about Jisr and its innovative solutions, visit

<https://www.jisr.net/En> or contact us at +966 11 5200 889

- Ends -

Media Contact:

Linkedin

X

instagram